Introduction

- Building a Workshop: Building a Plan
  By Frances E. Winslow

Part I

Overview

- 1-1 The Program
- 1-2 Keynote Address: Earthquake Induced Building Damage: A Continuing Problem
  By Robin Shepherd

Part II

Safety and Preparedness in the School: An Overview

- 2-1 Why Plan?
  By Robert Peterson and Frances E. Winslow
- 2-2 The Earthquake Threat to Orange County
  By David R. Hill
- 2-3 Evaluating Other Hazards in Your Area
  By Robert G. Berg
- 2-4 Non-Structural Hazard Mitigation for Schools
  By Frances E. Winslow
- 2-5 School Preparedness Supplies and Student Emergency Comfort Kits
  By Frances E. Winslow
- 2-6 Computers and Clip Art: Getting the Earthquake Preparedness Message Across at a Reasonable Cost
  By Frances E. Winslow
- 2-7 American Red Cross and Schools: Partners in Preparedness and Response
  By Gordon Brown
- 2-8 Working with Your City
  By Jack Slota and Frances E. Winslow

Part III

- The Team Concept/The Buddy System
  By Gloria Morrison
Part IV

Team Players: Defining Your Roles

4-1 Principals
   4-1-1 The Principal’s Role
       By Marilyn Boyd
   4-2-1 Communication After the Quake
       By Robert Bruce
   4-3-1 Earthquake Drills
       By Linda Smith

4-2 School Nurses
   4-2-1 Team Training and Supplies for Medical Response
       By Sally Snyder
   4-2-2 Earthquake Preparedness for Children with Chronic
       Medical Conditions
       By Mary Zombek
   4-2-3 Special Education Students on Integrated Sites
       By Sue A. Wheeler-Ayres
   4-2-4 Shelters for the Severely Handicapped
       By Sue A. Wheeler-Ayres
   4-2-5 Non-structural Hazard Mitigation in the Classroom
       By Henri Koza

4-3 Science Coordinators
   4-3-1 Earthquake Education Curricula: A Necessary Part of Earthquake Mitigation in the Schools
       By Katharyn E.K. Ross
   4-3-2 Earthquake Education Within State Science Frameworks
       By Joyce Blueford
   4-3-3 Integrating Earthquake Preparedness into Health Curriculum
       By Mike DeRoche

4-4 PTA Leaders
   4-4-1 Student Teams Utilized in a Disaster Situation
       By Fran Antenore
   4-4-2 What Parents Should Know About Earthquake
       Preparedness
       By Frances E. Winslow
   4-4-3 Caring for Children’s Psychological Needs
       By Marion B. Zenoff
Part V

Coming Together As a Team: Organize Your Plan 191

5-1 Planning Guidance: A Starting Point for Schools 193
   By Frances E. Winslow

   for Plan Development
   By Frances E. Winslow and Carolyn Wells

Part VI

Steps for the Future 221

6-1 Next Step: Action 223
   By Joyce B. Bagwell

Appendices

A Planning Committee A-1
B Roster of Speakers B-1
C Conference Evaluation C-1